RICHLANDS.

Last April we began to advertise our town lots, making at that time a number of statements in regard to what we would do. Through the non-completion of the Clinch Valley extension of the Norfolk and Western our railroad facilities at that time were very limited. We had no railroad station and, indeed, one old farmhouse was the total sign of life about the place. Since then the railroad has erected a fine brick and stone freight station, one of the largest on the road, and will shortly erect a fine passenger station, while the Clinch Valley Company has spent, or is under contract to expend, $350,000. A four-story hotel, the finest in Southwest Virginia, is under roof; a handsome iron bridge, of 180 feet span, crosses the Clinch river; two second-class hotels have been built, and a large number of stores are building under contract. The company has erected a handsome three-story building for its offices, and a fine stone bank building is nearing completion. Machinery for the rolling mill is on the grounds, and the track to the coal mines, three miles away, is completed, and coal is now coming out. A steam brick plant, the most complete in Southwest Virginia, is in operation, and a large amount of grading and other work is going on. This work attracts a great deal of attention, while Richlands is merely at the end of a non-completed line. The completion of the Clinch Valley division this fall, and the running of through trains between Washington and Louisville, putting Richlands immediately on a through line, will give an impetus to the prosperity of the town sufficient to throw it ahead of all competitors, and the attention of investors is called to real estate here as giving greater promise than any town in Southwest Virginia.

C. GRAHAM,

Agent Clinch Valley Coal and Iron Company, Richlands, Tazewell County, Virginia.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing In and Out of Roanoke.

A number of young ladies of this city gave a picnic in Carr's woods yesterday. The remains of Mr. Jeremiah Johnson, who died Friday afternoon at his home, No. 509 Fourth avenue northeast, were interred in the City Cemetery yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. F. Schooley officiating. Mr. Johnson was an employee of the Machine Works. He was a native of Scotland.

Three beautiful rainbows could be seen yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock in the eastern sky. This is quite an unusual occurrence. It is a common thing to see two, but three seldom appear.

Mayor Gunn, of Vinton, fined a Roanoke man $5 yesterday for shooting a revolver within the city limits of that town.

J. O'Keefe, of Norfolk, sign and pictorial artist, has accepted a position with McNamee & Hayslip.

Smith Read had a hearing before Judge Howerton yesterday charged with stealing $9 from Haywood Ray on a train at the Union depot. The case was sent on to the grand jury at the October term.

A. M. Hollin jumped from a moving train at Bonsack yesterday morning and broke his right leg at the knee.

On complaint of Gypsy Haywood, Emma Thomas was bound over to keep the peace for twelve months, Nora Heath going on her bond.

J. H. Adams, a prominent business man of Lynchburg, is at Hotel Roanoke.

Thomas C. Franklin, of the Lynchburg News, was in the city yesterday.

Timothy Rives, judge of the county court of Prince George, is in the city prospecting.

THE NORTHWEST LAND COMPANY

Capitalizes at $20,000 and Purchases 168 Acres of Land.

The Northwest Land Company deposited their charter with Clerk Brooke yesterday. The capital stock is $20,000, and the officers for the first year are C. W. C. Woolwine, president; Charles Lyle, vice-president; C. A. Woolford, secretary and treasurer, and M. H. Clayton, D. C. Moomaw, G. W. Ramsey, R. C. Machin, G. C. Moomaw, C. Markley and W. F. Baker.

The company has purchased 168 acres of land situated north of the Driving Park and adjoining the land of the Richmond and Roanoke Land Company.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor Evans was on the bench at the Mayor's office yesterday and disposed of the following cases:

Joe Eggleston, fighting and carrying concealed weapons, fined $10 and costs. Charlie Morton, disturbing the quiet and good order of the city, fined $5.

Michael Crow, drunk, fined $3.

Rosa Lee Robinson, disturbing the quiet and good order of the city, fined $5.

Sellie Phelps, same offense, fined $5.

Early Lawson, using profane language, fined $3.

E. R. Grovatt, allowing a horse to remain unattended on the streets, fined $1.

J. T. Jenkins, J. E. Trent and A. J. Silver, shooting within the city limits, fined $2.

Rosenbaum Brothers' Opening.

Rosenbaum Bros., the prominent and popular dry goods dealers, 42 Salem avenue, will have their grand fall opening on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The ladies of Roanoke and the surrounding towns will turn out in force, as this popular house never fails to have many new and attractive features.

Knocked Senseless.

Mr. T. N. Sweeney, of 218 Fourth avenue n. e., a carpenter, while at work on a building on Fifth avenue, n. e., yesterday afternoon, was struck on the head by a piece of falling timber and knocked senseless. Drs. Fry and Harrison rendered the necessary surgical attention.

Located in the Times Building.

The quarters of the Young Men's Christian Association have been removed from over Solomon's jewelry establishment to the third floor of THE TIMES building on Third avenue. Services will be held there to-day at 4 o'clock.

The time of the year is rolling around when business men should think about placing their orders for their blank-books for 1891. Write to or phone 128, Hammond's Printing Works, for an estimate on all kind of work.

Old exchanges for sale at THE TIMES office; 20 cents per 100.

A PETTY THIEF.

Officer Browning Captures Frank Hopkins and Recovers a Watch.

Officer Browning arrested Frank Hopkins, a colored boy, yesterday on suspicion of being implicated in the petty thieving going on at present. A watch was found in his possession, which was subsequently proven to be the one belonging to Mr. Warrie Smith, that was stolen from the residence of Dr. Stone Wednesday night, and $7.50 was also turned over to the officer by the woman with whom he had been boarding with.

She said Hopkins had given it to her to keep. This is the second member of this gang caught within the last two days, and Hopkins and Saunders will be given a hearing on next Friday.

Early Depravity.

A boy about fourteen years old entered the Continental Hotel bar Friday night and, snatching a quart bottle of whiskey from the counter, made off down Railroad avenue as fast as his legs would carry him. He was hotly pursued by a policeman, and after a short run was overhauled. Mayor Evans will take a hand in the matter tomorrow.

Coddling William.

William Murray, the colored boy who sells fruits and cigars on the Vinton dummy line, is again on the road, after a week's absence. William is the only boy that has given satisfaction to the traveling public, and he is a general favorite with the passengers.

A Mixed Battle.

Kelser Robinson, head waiter of the Exchange Hotel, and Grace Taylor, another colored worthy, had a free fight several nights ago, and were required to give a peace bond yesterday by Judge Howerton.

What the Treasury Got.

One hundred and fifty wagons contributed the sum of $22.50 into the city treasury yesterday for curbage tax at the city market. This is the largest amount ever collected by Clerk Davis in one day. The market was very full.

A complete stock of the best pianos and organs on the market can always be found at the Hobbie Music Company's, Lynchburg, Va. This old established house fully merits the high reputation it enjoys of selling only reliable instruments; you will find it to your interest to examine their stock before purchasing.
